5. All information regarding any agreement or understanding (including requests for and responses to), either formal or informal, between you and any Licensee concerning the indemnification of your potential liability in the Delaware Action, including but not limited to any pre-existing legal obligations between you and any Licensee.

6. The factual basis for your claim that your manufacturing and sales activities fall within the terms of any License Agreement including, but not limited to: (a) all information regarding WHEN any Accused Module used by you was manufactured and sold by any Licensee; (b) all information concerning whether any Accused Module was FULLY ASSEMBLED by a Licensee or, if not, a description of the manufacturing chan for any Accused Module; (c) all information as to whether any SALES CAP of any License Agreement has been exceeded, and the accounting for such SALES CAP; and (d) all information regarding the PHYSICAL DIMENSIONS of the Accused Modules as they are used in any products manufactured or sold by you.

7. For each product manufactured or sold by you using an Accused Module (including but not limited to those products that are subject to Topic No. 1), a description of the ordering, purchasing, and delivery channels for such products, including whether you purchase directly from the Licensee, and the terms and location of shipment and delivery (e.g. U.S. or foreign provenance).

8. The authenticity, foundation, and substance of the Documents identified in the Requests set forth in Schedule B.

SCHEDULE B

1. All Documents regarding Topics Nos. 1-7 of Schedule A.
2. All Documents relied on in preparation for Topics Nos. 1-7 of Schedule A.
3. Exemplar purchase orders for any Accused Module or any component of any Accused Module, or similar Documents initiating the sale to you of the same.
4. Exemplar invoices for any Accused Module or any component of any Accused Module, or similar Documents evidencing the sale to you of the same.
5. Exemplar bills of lading for any Accused Module or any component of any Accused Module, or similar Documents evidencing the delivery to you of the same.

SCHEDULE C
